CONTENTS

1. Discovering the Williams Property ..... 1

2. The Community Setting ..... 19

3. Who Was Nathan Williams? ..... 26

4. Archæological Investigations ..... 32

5. Talking Bricks and Babbling Bottles ..... 43

6. What We Learned ..... 46

References ..... 51

Data Recovery Surface Collection Nathan Williams Site ..... 54

Qualifications ..... 62

ILLUSTRATIONS

FIGURES

1. Location .....1
2. Vicinity map.....6
3. Project location, from the USGS Dover 7.5 minute quadrangle.....13
4. Location of the Nathan Williams tract, 1840.....14
5. Composite sketch map .....15
6. 1868 map.....17
7. Diagram of the 1992 machine cut .....18
8. 1992 surface collection results.....35
9. Controlled surface collection, July 26, 1997.....36
10. Distributions of selected artifact types.....37
11. North-south profile through the feature at 337 feet on the grid .....38
12. North-south profile through the feature at 990 feet on the grid .....38
13. Other feature locations in the north, 800 to 900 feet on the grid .....39
14. East-west section through the feature at 603.5 feet .....39
15. Diagram of features at the south end of the trench, supposed house site .....41
16. Results of stripping the supposed house site area near the driveway .....41
17. Details of the middle area of the trench .....42

PLATES

1. 1926 ærial photogaph of the Nathan Williams property.....11
2. Surface collections by volunteers .....32
3. Ærial photograph of the site, looking north .....33
4. Staff members clean the scraped area .....34
5. Taking a break.....34
6. Feature at 600 feet, opened to 20 inches.....40
7. Gradalls were used in both projects .....40
8. Jimi Ale sets the stakes along the edge of the field .....46
9. Shell edged pearlware .....46