Study Area Environmental Screening

Historical and Archaeological Site

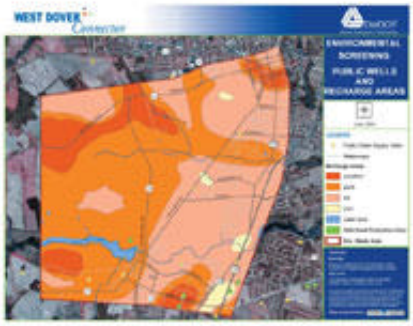
The study area contains National Register-listed historic properties and districts and other historic and archeological resources.

Waterways, Wetlands and Floodplains

Puncheon Run and Isaac Branch drain the study area.

Public Wells and Recharge Areas

The study area has good to excellent groundwater recharge capability. A number of public water supply wells are located in the study area.



Contamination Concerns

Sites that use, handle, or store materials that have the potential to be sources of contamination concerns have been identified.

WEST DOVER Connector

DelDOT