Delaware is proud to serve the traveling public year-round with a well-maintained intermodal transportation and highway system, which allows visitors quick and easy access to the First State's many attractions.

Northern Delaware features the corporate skyline of Wilmington and the rolling hills of the Brandywine Valley. The greater Wilmington area offers world-class museums, diverse ethnic and arts activities, great restaurants, and family entertainment.

In Delaware's state capital, Dover, historic buildings grace the downtown district. DART First State makes it easy and convenient for travelers wishing to enjoy Dover's many attractions.

Sussex County, Delaware's largest county, features an endless variety of activities for visitors. The coastal beaches are an attraction year-round, and many who venture into the resort towns choose to let Delaware do the driving.

such as I-95 and the Delaware Memorial Bridge on I-295. Bicyclists may cross the C&D Canal using the Summit Bridge on Route 896 or the Reedy Point Bridge on Route 9.

The State of Delaware is a wonderful mixture of natural and historical sites, exciting cultural attractions, and world-class family resorts.
