

5.0 ARCHAEOLOGY

No known archaeological sites are located in the APE. Given the urban nature and previous disturbance of the environment within the proposed limits of disturbance, there is low probability of any archaeological sites being situated in the APE. Therefore, it is anticipated that no formal archaeological surveys will be conducted as part of this project.