CRS# C00008

This grouping consists of 18 single-family dwellings, largely along the west side of Rt. 896 south of Old Baltimore Pike and north of Water's Edge Drive. The houses along South College Avenue are similar to those along Godwin Drive and Grace Court to the west and Old Baltimore Pike to the north, but the houses fronting the two main roads appear to date to slightly earlier. All are mid- to late 20th century buildings in the Minimal Traditional vein, with Ranch and Cape Cod styles prevailing; the houses retain good integrity but are not architecturally significant. The following houses are included in the district, which was drawn to incorporate those buildings falling within the APE and survey area for the Route 301 Project Development and does not necessarily reflect original subdivisions:

- 1608 S. College Ave.
- 1612 S. College Ave.
- 1616 S. College Ave.
- 1620 S. College Ave.

This grouping consists of 7 single-family dwellings along the west side of Glasgow Avenue (Business 896) north of Old County Road. Additional twentieth century housing is found in the subdivisions to the west and northwest of these dwellings. The houses in the district form the outer fringe of subdivision development in the vicinity but are earlier in date than those in the Marlin Drive area or the Melody Meadows subdivision; they are mid-twentieth century buildings, generally in the Minimal Traditional vein, with Cape Cod or Ranch forms. The houses generally retain good integrity but are not architecturally significant. The following houses are included in the district, which was drawn to incorporate those buildings falling within the APE and survey area for the Route 301 Project Development and does not necessarily reflect original subdivisions:
