QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

December 3, 2010

Question 3:

How long is it before a firm is selected for the final project.

Response to Question 3:

Selection times can vary, due weather and other unexpected delays this time of year. I would hope we would have a selection within 4 weeks time, but again this is only any estimate.

Question 2:

Will the proposed project start date change?

Response to Question 2:

We do anticipate a change in the proposed start date by approximately 1-2 months.

Question 1:

Are there any special certifications required for this bid?

Response to Question 1:

There are no special certifications required to participate as a candidate for this project.
