

List of Figures

Recent photograph of the Cooper House (K-222) or the Nuts	front cover
FIGURE 1: Site location, detail of USGS Dover 7.5' quadrangle, 1956, photorevised 1981.	iv
FIGURE 2: Detail of Beer's Atlas, showing Cooper's Corner as it appeared immediately after the Civil War.	1
FIGURE 3: Sketch map of roads through Cooper's Corner before the twentieth century.	3
FIGURE 4: Sketch map of Cooper's Corner as it existed before 1952.	4
FIGURE 5: Sketch map of the road network at Cooper's Corner after construction of the Dover Bypass, now U. S. 13.	5
FIGURE 6: Detail of the current Delaware Department of Transportation Dover map, showing the current configuration of the roads at Cooper's Corner.	6
FIGURE 7: Map of part of Brother's Portion during the eighteenth century, showing the location of the tract on which K-222 stands.	14
FIGURE 8: The 800-acre grant called Brother's Portion	15

Site location