* These listings represent aggregate totals of individual listings in the account book for 1809-10. The item names are taken from the account book; the categorization is the author's. Not included are lists of the merchandise purchased from suppliers enumerated as "Merchant, Philadelphia" in the account book, notes, or listings such as "By [name of a person]".

 Coombe recorded his accounts in pounds, shillings, and pence. Occasionally an individual entry would be in dollars and cents, and then converted to the pounds system, thus providing the conversion rate he employed - L1 = $2.67. L3585.15.4 = $9573.95

 All ceramic entries were provided by William Green, potter of Duck Creek Hundred.

* All shoes and slippers were supplied by two shoemakers, Whittle Currey, Samuel Russell.
