

PERSONNEL

William M. Gardner, Principal Investigator

BA in Psychology, University of Florida at Gainesville, Ph.D. in Anthropology, University of Illinois. Presently Professor in Anthropology Department, The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. and President, Thunderbird Archeological Associates. Over 17 years of experience in Middle Atlantic Archeology.

Timothy A. Thompson, Archivist

BA in Anthropology, University of Florida at Gainesville, MA in Anthropology, The Catholic University of America. Presently Staff Archeologist and Archivist, Thunderbird Archeological Associates. Over 10 years of experience in Middle Atlantic Archeology.

Randolph K. Taylor, Field Director

BA in Anthropology, University of Virginia, MA candidate, The Catholic University of America. Presently Staff Archeologist, Envirosphere, Inc. Over 5 years of experience in Middle Atlantic Archeology.

Snyder, Kimberly A.

BA and MA in Anthropology, The Catholic University of America. Presently Contracts Manager, Thunderbird Archeological Associates. Over 10 years of experience in Middle Atlantic Archeology.

Field Crew: Debra Desarmeaux, David Weinberg, Pamela Stephenson, Pamella Carmichael, Melanie Meyers, Carol Medlar and Steven Hunt. Ms. Carmichael also provided services as field draftsman.

Lab Crew: Mary Folsom Barse.

Faunal Analysis: Dr. David Clark of the Zooarcheology Research Facility, Department of Anthropology, The Catholic University of America. He was assisted by Randolph Taylor, Elizabeth Giarrantana and Bernadette Monacelli.

Soils Analysis: The Soils Laboratory, College of Agriculture, The University of Delaware.