

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Contents	i
List of Illustrations	ii
1.0 INTRODUCTION	1
2.0 RESEARCH DESIGN	10
2.1 Environmental Setting of the Project Area	10
2.2 Research Design	12
2.3 Initial Site Assessment	12
3.0 FIELD METHODS AND RESULTS	23
3.1 Field Methods	23
3.2 Field Results	24
3.2.1 Tower Hill Road	24
3.2.2 Farmington Road	30
3.2.3 Proposed Drainage Ditch	30
3.2.4 Commerce Street and Reese Avenue Intersection	33
4.0 CONCLUSIONS	35

References

Appendices

- Appendix A: Qualifications of Researchers
- Appendix B: Project Documents
- Appendix C: Test Excavation Log
- Appendix D: Artifact Inventory

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Figures

1.	Project Area Map	2
2.	Soils Map.....	11
3.	1868 Map of the Project Area	14
4.	1918 USGS 15-minute Topographic Map of the Project Area	15
5.	1938 USGS 7.5-minute Topographic Map of the Project Area	18
6.	1944 USGS 7.5-minute Topographic Map of the Project Area	19
7.	1955 USGS 7.5-minute Topographic Map of the Project Area	21
8a.	Tower Hill Road Base Map Section 1	25
8b.	Tower Hill Road Base Map Section 2.....	26
8c.	Tower Hill Road Base Map Section 3.....	27
9.	Farmington Road Base Map.....	31
10.	Proposed Drainage Ditch Base Map	32
11.	Commerce Street and Reece Avenue Intersection Base Map.....	34

Photographs

1.	Agricultural fields on south side of Tower Hill Road project area. View looking northwest (June 2004)	3
2.	Grassy swale and drainage ditch on east side of the Farmington Road project area. View looking south (February 2004).....	5
3.	Farmington Road at the intersection with Route 14, West Street, Commerce Street and Reese Avenue. View looking south (August 2004).....	5
4.	Late-twentieth-century residences along Farmington Road near the intersection with Route 14, West Street, Commerce Street and Reese Avenue. View looking west (April 2005).....	6
5.	View of West Street (lower left), Commerce Street (center), and Reese Avenue (far right). A block shed (K-7380) (center) and the mid-nineteenth-century residence (K-2304, left of shed) are located adjacent to the intersection. View looking northeast (August 2004).....	8
6.	View of Route 14 (center) and Farmington Road (left). “Fleming Estate” (K-2571) stood in vacant lot next to green late-nineteenth-century structure (K-2572) View looking west (August 2004)	8