LOCAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE SITE was generously provided by three longtime residents. Mrs. June Butler, who owns the 1881 miller's house, was most helpful with a guided tour and considerable background information on the property and its former owners. James B. Jackson of Dover, whose scholarship on Cæsar Rodney was useful to this project, also provided insights gleaned from visits to his great-uncle, the second Henry Moore of Mount Vernon Mills. William P. Maag, longtime resident of the neighborhood, shared his vast knowledge of local history.
