

Summary of e-Government Applications
Department of Transportation

The Department of Transportation has significantly improved our e-government applications in the areas of hauling permits, requests for proposals/bidding process, transit fare cards and EZ-Pass. We do not anticipate significant new e-government opportunities to advance as part of the Livable Delaware initiative at this time.